

THE LEDGE SHOW
FOR SKATERS & ADRENALINE JUNKIES
4-6TH SEPTEMBER 2011
GALLERY LEVEL, THE NATIONAL HALL, OLYMPIA, W14.

The Ledge Show is the explosive new trade show exclusively designed for skaters and adrenaline junkies. It will be launched on the Gallery Level in the National Hall, Olympia between 4-6th September 2011 Running concurrently with Londonedge & Londoncentral, the well established exhibitions for music merch, fashion & footwear with an EDGE, the partnership between these brands will impact both parties extremely positively. There will be a stairwell connecting the two levels creating a further dynamic to the relationship.

There's long been talk of the synergy between these established shows and the skate & adrenalin sport markets and the organisers believe that now is the time to launch The Ledge - the very first show of it's kind. It's not just another trade show. Visitors & exhibitors can expect to leave the show having had a whole lot of memorable experiences. Ramps, action, performances, gaming zones & fashion shows will guarantee maximum satisfaction.

We're driving the concept hard and more news and information will be released soon.

A floor plan is now available - please note there are a limited number of stands for the launch show.
